Subject: Henni Zommer- Dancer

To: all whom it may concern,

Gamatronic Electronic Industries is hiring the services of Ms. Henni Zommer for our international distributor seminar events.

Henni is providing a great performance every time and leaves no one indifferent to the show. Her belly dance performance is classic and impressive and the music fusion that Henni is using fits well to any audience.

Additionally, she treats her profession very seriously- arrives always on time and well prepared both mentally and physically.

I remember a specific event when one of my guests from Africa enjoyed the show so much that he asked me where he can buy CD's with such music. When I told that to Henni after the show, she immediately took the CD that she was using for the show, went to my guest and gave it to him personally.

For conclusion, I highly recommend Henni entertainment services for corporate events.

Sincerely yours,

Noam Segev
